With its year-round mild subtropical climate, Batumi attracts the most tourists visiting Georgia.

The large port and strategic location on the railway network also make Batumi an important commercial center on the Turkish - Georgian border.

Adjara's economy is also based on growing tobacco, tea and citrus fruits.

Batumi Airport (BUS) is conveniently located within a reach from the main touristic attractions:

- The city center of Batumi within 15 minutes driving distance (6 km).
- The Mtiral National Park within 1 hour driving distance.
- The Machakhela National Park within 50 minutes driving distance.
- The Gonio Fortress within 10 minutes driving distance.

BATUMI, Gateway to Adjara

Even in the coldest months, the temperature doesn't go lower than +7-10 degrees which is why you may visit Batumi at any time of the year.

The Adjara seaside has a subtropical climate, 21-kilometer long coastline, the warm sea of 21-29 Celsius on average, comfortable atmosphere and distinctive nature. Besides leisure, Batumi resort has solar therapy and sea-salt baths to offer

Batumi Boulevard is the main and most visited sightseeing of the city. The recreation zone, which at the same time is a cultural heritage monument, for centuries, has united the city's guests or native inhabitants.

Gambling is popular in Batumi, with many casinos located in upscale hotels, attracting both locals and tourists. Recent hotel constructions suggest further growth in the city's casino industry.

Batumi Botanical Garden located at the distance of 9 km from the center of Batumi, occupies the area of 108.7 hectare

Adjara is one of the most important wine regions of and subtropical zones in Georgia. The revival of viticulture and winemaking has been evident in Adjara in recent years.

The Black Sea Jazz Festival is an international jazz festival held annually, traditionally in July, in Batumi.

Batumi International Airport

Batumi International Airport is located 2 km south of Batumi, a city on the Black Sea coast and the capital of Adjara, Autonomous Republic in southwest Georgia.

After starting operations at Tbilisi International Airport in 2005, TAV Airports continued its investment in the region and assumed the operation of Batumi International Airport in May 2007 with its new runway, taxiway, apron and terminal building. In 2021 the expansion project of the Batumi International Airport doubled the terminal area from 4,000 sqm to 8,000 sqm. The baggage handling zone was upgraded with an additional luggage carousel and an automated conveyor system. The number of check-in counters and the number of passport control desks increased. Two bus gates were added, bringing the total number to six.

According to the statistical reports of 2025 Batumi International Airport provided services to 1,229,949 passengers during the year.
